

INFORMATION RESOURCE CENTER

Public Affairs Section
U.S. Embassy
16 Mongkol Iem Street (228), Phnom Penh

TABLE-OF-CONTENTS SERVICE (TOC)

This service provides the contents page(s) of the following periodicals received by the Public Affairs Section's Information Resource Center at the U.S. Embassy, Phnom Penh. Xeroxed copies of articles of your choice will be sent upon request.

Asian Survey

Published bimonthly by The University of California Press

Asian Survey is a source for detailed commentary on current development in Asia. It provides readers with authoritative views and analyses of the politics, economics, and foreign relations of Asian countries.

Challenge: The Magazine of Economic Affairs

Published bi-monthly by M.E. Sharpe Inc.

This journal presents a wide range of views on national and international economic affairs in the belief that an informed dialogue can result in more rational and effective public policy.

Columbia Journalism Review (CJR)

Published bi-monthly by The Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism

CJR attempts to assess the performance of journalism in all its forms, to call attention to its shortcomings and its strengths, and helps define standards of honest, responsible service

Current History

Published monthly by Current History Inc.

This is a journal of contemporary world affairs. It has a focused coverage of our rapidly changing world. Each issue also includes an international chronology of events of that particular month.

Economist

Published weekly by The Economist Newspaper

This magazine provides a wide variety of issues, internationally, ranging from economics and finance, government and politics, science and technology to democracy and elections.

Foreign Affairs

Published bi-monthly by Council on Foreign Relations Inc.

A distinguished non-partisan journal of international affairs as they affect United States relations in all parts of the world: thoughtful and provocative articles, contributed by members of the academic, government and business communities, discuss world politics, economics, social problems and issues, cultural developments and diplomacy. Contains useful listings of source materials and recent books on international relations.

Foreign Policy

Published quarterly by Carnegie Endowment for International Peace

Aims “to stimulate rational discussion of the new directions required in American foreign policy”. The underlying assumption is that “the post war period in international relations (and of U.S. foreign policy) has ended” and that new objectives, new means and new machinery are now needed by U.S. policy makers. A supplement to Foreign Affairs.

Harvard Business Review

Published monthly by Harvard Business School Publishing Corporation

Harvard Business Review is a journal of management thought and practice, written by authorities in business and business education. This publication offers discussion and debate on agenda-setting issues for both national and international issues.

Human Rights Quarterly

Published quarterly by The Johns Hopkins University Press

This journal offers up-to-date information on important developments within the United Nations and regional human rights organizations, both governmental and non-governmental. It presents current work in human rights research and policy analysis, reviews of related books, and philosophical essays probing the fundamental nature of human rights as defined by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

The Journal of Economic Perspective

Published bi-monthly by Sage Publications, Inc.,

This is an interdisciplinary journal of social scientific theory and research on human conflict. It focuses largely on international conflict, but also explores a variety of national, intergroup and interpersonal conflicts. The Journal of Conflict Resolution provides readers with the latest ideas, approaches and processes in conflict resolution.

Journal of Democracy

Published quarterly by The Johns Hopkins University Press

This journal focuses exclusively on democracy. It monitors and analyzes democratic regimes and movement in scores of countries around the world. Each issue features a unique blend of scholarly analysis, reports from democratic activists, updates on news and elections, and reviews of important recent books.

Journal of Economics and Management Strategy

Published quarterly by The Massachusetts Institute of Technology Press.

The Journal of Economics and Management Strategy provides a leading forum for interaction and research on the competitive strategies of managers and organizational structure of firms. It serves as a valuable resource for managers and managerial consultants seeking up-to-date research on management strategy.

Journal of World Business

Published quarterly by Elsevier Science Inc.

Journal of World Business is the source of information on international business going into the 21st century. It also intends to serve as a forum for international business scholars and professionals in three areas: human resources management, marketing and strategic management.

The Washington Quarterly

Published quarterly by Massachusetts Institute of Technology Press.

Washington Quarterly addresses topics such as: the future of international security; trade, finance, and economics; political-military problem; foreign policy challenges and processes.

Note: This Periodical List will be expanded as new periodical titles are received.

*Information Resource Center (IRC)
Public Affairs Section, U.S. Embassy Phnom Penh
No. 16, Mongkol Iem Street (228), Phnom Penh
Tel: 216-436/ 216-438, Ext. 256; 286 Fax: 217-637*